FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Managers of the Brooklyn Society for the Relief of Respectable, Aged, Indigent Females, in presenting their Fourth Annual Report, desire, first of all, to recognize the goodness of God, in preserving so generally the health of their beneficiaries, while sickness and death have been so prevalent in the land, and in continuing to the Society the means of usefulness, in the midst of such wide-spread commercial embarrassment.

At the commencement of the year, the regular pensioners of the Society numbered twenty-four; six have been received during the year, and three have died—leaving twenty-seven now in charge of the Society. In addition to these, six respectable elderly females are inmates of the Institution, the expense of their board being provided for by their friends.

The receipts of the Society during the past year have been $3,975 51, and the expenses (not including the interest on the mortgage) $3,380 41—leaving a balance in the treasury of $1,811 20, out of which the accrued interest on the mortgage is yet to be paid.

The first death which occurred in the Institution during the year, was that of Mrs. Elizabeth Pollion, aged 65, who died of paralysis on the 22d of May. The next was Mrs. Mary Deacon, aged 81, who died on the 30th of August, of cholera—the only case of this disease which occurred in the Institution during the year. The third was Miss Hannah McCullough, who died on the 7th of September, aged 76, of consumption. The rest of the inmates have enjoyed remarkably good health, considering their age, and the infirmities to which they are consequently subject.

The Managers desire to express their gratitude to Dr. Vanderveer, of this city, for his valuable medical services, which have been rendered gratuitously to the inmates of the Institution throughout the year.

The First Directress of the Society, Mrs. Rev. Dr. Cox, whose sound judgment has heretofore contributed so largely to its prosperity, resigned her office on the 2d of March, in consequence of her contemplated removal from the city, and her place was filled by the election of Mrs. Rev. Dr. Lansing, the present incumbent—a choice fully justified by the harmony and good feeling which have continued to characterize all the deliberations of the Board. Mrs. Rev. Dr. Hodge, who has faithfully discharged the duties of Corresponding Secretary since the organization of the Society, resigned her office in September, in consequence of a pressure of other engagements, and her place has been temporarily supplied by another officer of the Society. A successor will be chosen after the annual meeting. Other vacancies in the Board, from change of residence, or resignation, have been filled, as they occurred, by the election of new members, under the provisions of the Constitution.

The Institution has been regularly supplied with the preaching of the gospel, (with occasional exceptions during the summer months,) mostly through the kindness of the clergy of this city.

The Managers of the Society are forty in number, and are chosen from the various religious societies of the city—care being taken that, while each denomination is represented, those only shall be elected who will give their personal attention to the duties assigned them. The Managers would here express the hope, that during the past year they have faithfully redeemed the trust committed to them. Their regular monthly meetings have been well attended; the expenses of the Institution have been directed with a due regard to economy, but without limiting unduly the comfort of the beneficiaries; and no time or pains has been spared in making the Institution a Home to those who have taken shelter beneath its roof.

These efforts have been so far successful, that the inmates of the Institution are earnest in their gratitude for its benefits, and contented with its provisions. Occasional complaints have been made against some of their more immediate attendants; but all of the pensioners are happy in their home, and grateful to those kind friends who have done so much to provide for their declining years.

The Matron of the Institution, who was elected when the building was first occupied, still continues faithful to her trust, and the Managers are well satisfied with her judicious care of the household.

The Institution has no endowment beyond the value of the ground and buildings which it occupies, and upon which a mortgage-debt is still resting, amounting to $5,255 49. It will be remembered that the founder of this charity, Mr. John B. Graham, expended, for the land and buildings, $29,044 95, of which he gave $13,044 95—leaving $16,000 to be contributed by other benevolent citizens. Of this sum, $10,744 51 had been raised up to the time of Mr. Graham's death, leaving the debt a little over $5,000, as above stated.

It was the purpose of the founder to establish, from his own means, a permanent fund for the endowment of the Institution; and but for his sudden decease, without a moment's warning, this purpose would undoubtedly have been accomplished. Since his death, the Society has had no income except the admission-fee of the pensioners, the payments for life-membership, and the annual contributions of the benevolent—and has therefore been unable to do anything toward the reduction of its standing debt. Still, the managers would not be unmindful of the charities of those who have enabled them to continue their operations successfully, and would take this opportunity to return their thanks to all who have aided in this good work.

The object of the Society is now too well understood to need more than brief mention in this report. It is, in the language of the Act of Incorporation, "to afford relief, care and support to aged, indigent females."

The applicants for assistance must (unless with special exceptions) be sixty years of age; must bring satisfactory testimonials to their respectability; and, if admitted, must each furnish a good bed and bedding, and the furniture of one room, and pay an admission-fee of sixty dollars. Once admitted, they are supported from the funds of the Society, while they conform to its rules, until the close of their lives.

Whatever difference of opinion there may be in the community as to the propriety of affording pecuniary aid to other classes of the destitute, there can be none in regard to our duty to the aged and infirm, and especially to those who have seen better days. Bowed down under the weight of years—separated by death or misfortune from those whose strength should be the support of their tottering footsteps—and bereft of worldly substance at a time when they most need it—who shall stretch forth a hand to lead them gently down the sharp declivities of life? What other charity is there which ministers to their relief? This Society does not receive them as paupers, but as elder sisters, who have spent their lives in ministering to others, and who are now entitled to their rest. The Institution is not an Alms-House, but a HOME, where the weary, who have borne the burden and heat of the day, may pass the evening in a serene preparation for the dark hour which shall usher in the eternal morning.

At the mention of "home," whose heart is not carried back to the fireside circle where he first learned the meaning of that endearing word? And, as he thinks of the fond mother whose gentle counsels and loving ministry made that home so dear to him—whether she be gone to her final rest, leaving him her hallowed and hallowing memory, or be still living, to lay her trembling hand in blessing on his head—who can recall all that she has done for him, and not feel a yearning tenderness toward these aged, helpless ones, whose claim upon his care is sanctified in the light of such a recollection?

The Managers of this Society do not desire to press their claims unduly upon the attention of the charitable. God loveth a cheerful giver, and the Society asks for none but a free-will offering. The Managers feel that the debt of five thousand dollars is a burden upon their usefulness; but they leave the time and manner of their relief to those with whom the Master has left the means He would employ in doing good. The Society relies for its support, the coming year, upon those who are governed by principle, not by impulse; and who, having put their hand to this work, will not let it want while their own homes are filled with plenty.

The Managers are not willing to believe that, as long as the dearest earthly ties are represented in the names of mother, wife and sister, these unfortunate mothers, wives and sisters will appeal for substantial sympathy in vain.

And may the Father of all, who has given to His human children such opportunities to testify their love to Him in their sympathy with suffering and sorrow, bless those who give, those who distribute, and those who receive, these charities, and guide them all to that Home where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither any more pain, for the former things are passed away.

In behalf of the Board.

D. C. STONE,

Corresponding Secretary pro tem.

Every applicant for admission must be recommended by one or more subscribers, and must bring satisfactory testimonials of the propriety of her conduct, and the respectability of her character. It will be required that any one admitted to the Asylum shall pay sixty dollars on her admission, and come provided with a good bed, bedding, and furniture for a room. Furniture and other articles brought into the Asylum are to remain for the benefit of the Institution.

The age of persons relieved or admitted into the Asylum must not be under sixty years, unless strongly recommended by necessitous circumstances, in which the Committee shall have discretionary power.

No individuals need apply for admittance except they have been residents of Brooklyn or Williamsburg at least seven years previous to application.

The Board shall have discretionary power to remove any pensioner from the Home to the Insane Hospital, who manifests signs of insanity.

Persons may be admitted as boarders, (but not to the exclusion of those who are entirely dependent,) provided they submit to the rules and regulations of the Institution, and give satisfactory security for the regular payment of their board, and that their funeral expenses will be defrayed.

Persons who wish to enter the Institution can confer with the Application Committee at the house of Mrs. JAMES SHELDON, 86 Pierrepont-street, on the second Wednesday in each month. The Committee will meet at 11 o'clock, A. M., precisely, and continue in session one hour.

DUTIES OF THE MANAGERS.

The First Directress shall preside at the meetings of the Managers, preserve order, nominate committees, call special meetings, and in all equal divisions of the Board, give the casting vote. She shall furnish every new Manager with a book, containing in print the Constitution, the rules for the regulation of the Board, the duties of the Managers, and the rules for the government of the Asylum. When a Manager resigns her seat at the Board, she is to return this book to the First Directress, who will make it over to her successor.

In the absence of the First Directress, the Second shall preside; and if both be absent, a person shall be chosen from among the members present, to preside at the meeting.

The Recording Secretary shall summon the meetings of the Managers, keep a fair and correct record of all their proceedings, a register of the inmates of the Asylum, and do all other writing not connected with the office of the Treasurer, or the business of committees.

The Treasurer shall hold the evidences of property belonging to the Society; receive all moneys, and deposit the same at a bank, in her name, as Treasurer; make payments agreeably to the orders of Managers; keep a fair account of all receipts and expenditures, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Managers. She shall furnish a monthly abstract of her receipts and expenditures, and of the balance remaining in her hands, and prepare a statement to be laid before the Society at their annual meeting.

The Managers shall be divided into committees of two, who, in weekly rotation, shall superintend the Asylum, under the name of the "Visiting Committee."

The Visiting Committee shall visit the Asylum not less than twice during their week: they shall endeavor to be present once at each meal; shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates; generally direct the concerns of the family; and report their observations in the minute-book—which book, on the last day of their week, is to be sent to the succeeding committee; for which purpose a list of the committees is to be kept in the book.

The Purchasing Committee shall make all purchases necessary for the family, pay all bills, and present a monthly account of their proceedings to the Board.

The Committee for Receiving Applications.—It shall be the duty of this Committee to receive applications, to visit the applicants, inquire into their character and circumstances, and make their report thereon to the Board, in writing. It shall also be the duty of this committee to keep a register of the names of the applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, and their place of residence. It will be likewise required that they keep a book, in which the terms of agreement, entered into between the committee and the friends of the applicant, be inserted, with the signatures annexed. No person will be admitted into the Institution without an order from the Committee.

Church Committee.—A committee of twelve members of the Board of Managers shall be appointed to see that the Asylum is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel; and have a general superintendence of this important concern. Any minister, properly authorized as a preacher of the Gospel by an evangelical denomination of Christians, shall be cordially received, and none other will be admitted. The whole duty of supplying the Asylum with the preaching of the Gospel to devolve on this committee, which they will be expected carefully and conscientiously to discharge; and the other members of the Board of Managers will be required to communicate with this committee, and obtain their consent, previous to introducing any one into the Asylum as a religious instructor. The committee shall, as far as practicable, have the Asylum supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath. The committee shall make such regulations as may appear to them proper and regular, with respect to prayer-meetings, or any other religious meetings, from time to time. The committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject, in the absence of the committee. The committee to keep a register of applications, with the decisions of the Board in each case.

Each Manager will be furnished, by the Recording Secretary, with a list of subscribers, whose contributions she will be expected annually to collect.

The duties of the Managers appear to be generally comprised in the foregoing rules; in addition to which, it shall be considered the duty of the Visiting Committees at the Asylum, during their stated periods of attendance, not only to inquire into the temporal welfare of its inmates, but to visit them in their several rooms, and endeavor to ascertain their spiritual state, giving them such advice and instruction as may be in their power, and the circumstances of the case may render necessary.
